My mission

I have come here to be kind, loving, generous, peaceful, and connected to Divine Presence. I am a mid-wife to awakening souls. It is my purpose to stay awake. It is my mission to help others awaken and empower them to live a life of love, peace and abundance.

My vision

I help transform lives and raise consciousness by giving effective Sunday messages, teaching classes and giving pastoral support. I help raise consciousness by offering adult and youth education and programs for spiritual growth. I joyfully use my best talents and skills and work with teams in a mission- centric church. I am prayerful and mindful of boundaries and self- care. I am a good manager of staff and volunteers. I use and teach effective, truthful, open, and honest communication. I serve congregations that transform lives and transforms the world.
